

Job Posting: Connections Director November 2013

Mount Ararat Baptist Church
Position: Connections Director
Status: Full-Time

Mount Ararat is located in Stafford, VA approximately 40 miles south of Washington, DC. We are a fast-paced, growing, innovative church seeking to make disciples by creating environments that connect people to God, to one another, and to serving the world! By loving God and loving others, we are seeking to change the world!

The Connections Director will provide vision and leadership to Mount Ararat's Connection and Next Step ministries. This person will oversee all adult ministry connection and next step teams ministries, and strategy; lead and develop ministry volunteers; and serve as part of the Adult Ministry Team.

We are looking for someone who is...

- Passionate about seeing people connect to the church and take the next steps that will grow them in their faith.
- High energy and very much a people person.
- Able to recruit and lead volunteer teams.
- A person who knows how to inspire others to greatness.
- Hard working and willing to go the extra mile to impact lives.
- A problem solver who is able to think strategically about systems and strategies.
- A team player who knows how to have fun while working hard.
- Excited to embrace the purpose, vision, strategy, and beliefs of Mount Ararat.

This person will...

- Lead and direct the Connection and Next Step strategy and elements of the Adult Ministry.
- Lead the Connection and Next Step Teams to include:
 - First Impressions Teams
 - Next Step Teams
- Research, develop, and execute new strategies and environments to help connect adult to Mount Ararat.
- Lead in the recruiting and placement of Connection and Next Step Team volunteers.
- Provide spiritual leadership and oversight to teams and team members.
- Assist with the training and development of volunteer leaders.
- Assist with care and counseling as needed.
- Assist with Adult Ministry projects and events as needed.
- Coordinate the connection ministry to work in collaboration with other ministries to fulfill the mission of the church.

If this is you, please send your resume to Zac Ashley at zashley@mtararat.org.