

NZIHA SPECIAL BULLETIN

- The NZIHA are sending this special bulletin to clubs to ask for assistance for one of our members who has suffered from a destructive house fire in Morrinsville over the weekend.
- The family have lost pretty much everything and are having to start from scratch again.
- Their daughter Mary, has recently returned to NZ after playing for New Zealand in the 18U women's gold medal team
- The Morrinsville community and Barbara Wilson have donated furniture for their immediate needs and the family are moving into a new home this coming weekend.
- The family need clothing, shoes, kitchen utensils, appliances, linen, towels, etc..
- Mary has managed to salvage her AAU medals from the ruins!
- Mary has an older sister and brother. For any clothing and/or shoe donations the size ranges are from (clothing) Size 8–10, plus men's 82cm, Shoes 7, 7.5 and 9.5 for her brother.
