Explanatory Notes

- 1 This achievement standard is derived from The New Zealand Curriculum, Learning Media, Ministry of Education, 2007; Level 6, achievement objectives A1 (Personal growth and development), A4 (Personal identity), C1 (Relationships), and D1 (Societal attitudes and values), and is related to the material in the Teaching and Learning Guide for Home Economics, Ministry of Education, 2010 at <http://seniorsecondary.tki.org.nz>. Assessment will be consistent with and reflect the underlying concepts (hauora, socio-ecological perspective, health promotion, and attitudes and values) of the Health and Physical Education learning area in The New Zealand Curriculum, page 22.

This standard is also derived from Te Marautanga o Aotearoa. For details of Te Marautanga o Aotearoa achievement objectives to which this standard relates, see the Papa Whakaako.

- 2 Definitions

Culture is the distinctive ideas, customs, social behaviour, products or way of life of a particular society, people or period.

Cultural practices refer to foods and drinks specific to a culture; how they are gathered, prepared, cooked, served and eaten. These practices are underpinned by attitudes, values, and beliefs.

Eating patterns include the types of food eaten, the amount of food eaten, how food is prepared, how and where food is eaten, when food is eaten, and what food is available.

- 3 In order to provide evidence for assessment in this achievement standard, the student must be involved in food preparation and service involving the food customs of another culture. Evidence may include but is not limited to – logs, diaries, recipes, reports.
  - 4 The culture and research material could be defined and supplied by the teacher.
  - 5 Demonstrate understanding involves giving an account with clear examples.
  - 6 Demonstrate in-depth understanding involves giving reasons and relating them to the given examples.
  - 7 Demonstrate comprehensive understanding involves considering how and why the cultural practices have been adapted to suit a New Zealand lifestyle, e.g. health awareness, time and money constraints.
