

The Cultural Festival was a fantastic success with many international munchies being a real hit, not to mention the fabulous entertainment that rocked the hall all night. A job well done you talented lot of international students!

Colin & Philine get serious about rolling the pretzels.

The Japanese treats tasted so good because the students infused them with enjoyment.

Pacifica was the opener

The Chinese fan dance was beautiful

Kyle plays while the others sing

Bernie telling it like it is in a solo comedy act

Thailand rock the house

Cinderella – German style (you had to be there!)

I can't remember what the song was called but it was catchy with a dynamic Japanese dance routine

Brazil shows you how to CAAAAARRRRNIVAAAAAAAAL!

Another high-powered dance routine. In the end they realised they were facing the wrong way.

Bosh and Kyle melt some hearts with a soulful rendition. Not a dry eye in the house!

Bringing Joy to the Audience (see what I did there?). A superb solo.

Dancing the light fantastic – old school

Gao and the gang. An Acoustic Thailand.

The graceful art of Tai Chi... I always have great respect for dancers that can rip your heart out of your chest and show it to you before you die.

A very cool and hyperactive routine from Kyle and Ian. Not quite sure if they were beating each other up or dancing – but it looked incredible!

Feel the passion! The internationals leave the audience wanting more with their unique take on 'Waving Flag'
