17 JULY 2016 16TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

READINGS THIS WEEK:

1st: Gen.18.1-10a Hospitality
2nd: Col. 1.24-28 The mystery of Christ
Gospel: Lk.10.38-42 Martha and Mary

Readings for next week: ; Gen.18.20-32 Col.2.12.-14
 Lk.11.1-13

*Next weeks readings SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY OF THE YEAR Genesis 18:20-32; Colossians2:12-14; Luke 11:1-13

Next Sunday's gospel provides plenty to reflect on when it comes to prayer. First of all we have the apostles asking Jesus to teach them how to pray. Personal or devotional prayer as we know it was not generally part of the ancient Jewish faith. Jesus responds, as any devout Jew would have, in words reflecting the Jewish Kaddish prayer or hymn of praise: "May the great name of God be exalted and sanctified throughout the world.... May God's kingship be established in your lifetime and in your days...." "Keep giving us each day the bread we need." The final petitions in the prayer are for forgiveness "as we forgive each one who is in debt to us" and freedom from trials that test our faith. Then comes the unusual little parable about the sleeping neighbour's response to the friend in need. Is it persistence that, finally, brings a response or is it the need to avoid shame in a culture where a Jew would be greatly shamed by refusing to help a neighbour who is unable to meet the demands of hospitality? The literal meaning of anaideia, the original Greek word in Luke, is 'avoidance of shame'. The English translation 'persistence' seems to be connected with what Luke's Jesus says next: 'Ask.....search.....knock.....' And then there is the final message that God's care for us is so utterly extravagant that we can turn to God with complete confidence – with the same confidence that gave Abraham, in the first reading, the nerve to haggle with God over the survival of the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah. Abraham was not asking for personal favours but for the life of the people of these two cities where his nephew Lot and his family lived. In the end, it was only this family that survived; but God heard and responded to Abraham's plea. The key ingredients of that plea were faith and persistence.

Are we two wordy in prayer?

My own reflection is that perhaps we are. We recite but are we thinking what we are saying / praying . Reciting is important, but so is reflection on what we pray an example from last week. All the earth, not just us in kiwi land but all of us are all called to shout to the Lord joyfully.
 Fr Brian.
Shout joyfully to God, all the earth, look at each word Shout why when what does this mean for you.
Joyfully : When, at eucharist, at nature, at new birth, new experience.
God : who is God for you, just a name, someone close, obscure, delightful creator.

Week ending July 17: the readings this Sunday leave us not with a choice between one or another way of following the Lord, but the challenge to welcome, to feed, to pray and listen to the call of the Lord in the stranger, the one in need. Christ is at the door: listen, welcome, and serve.

When: Monday 25th July 2016,
5:15 pm

Where: Parish Community Room.

Why: As a "committed" member of the parish family, we encourage anyone

Trust Board, representing the parish on behalf of the Bishop, to help us oversee the wonderful Marae and Hall that belongs to our combined pastoral area. Time commitment is very small - we only meet a few times each year, and there is not a lot to be done in between meetings. If you think you might be interested in learning more about this aspect of our parish, and may possibly want to become involved, please come along to the AGM to hear what the Trust is all about. Everyone is welcome!

Alternatively, you could approach one of the current Trust Board members
Kataraina Millin, Barbara Vine, Raukura
Boatwright Amiria Beamsley or Claire Heffernan with any questions you may have. Or contact Jo in the Parish office."

Monday Friendship Meals

We are looking for volunteers to help Monday lunchtimes (except Statutory holidays) for an hour or so.
Please see Angela or Maree after mass or leave your name at the office.

Readers

- The liturgy committee have made a change—a reverting back if you like.
- Notices are read from a separate stand by the music group.

- The greeting at the opening of mass is to be done from the lectern
- The prayers of the faithful are read from the lectern.

Note that the microphone that will be used by the music group, think of it as an licking an ice cream, you have to be very close.

The other microphone requires some practice, each person might need to stand at a different place, no microphone is universal.

As readers, please be aware of the right place for you.

Please remember it is God's Word you are pronouncing.

Gods word is special, holy and reverent. The most important Word you will read today, and the most important word people will hear.

So practice is required, early arrival is essential, and procession in with the Eucharistic minister, Priests and Altar
Servers is the norm.

Fr Brian

IMPORTANT: If family members or a friend is admitted to hospital or a rest home it is vital that you let the Office know so that we can arrange a visit by a priest or Chaplain or arrange for Holy Communion to be taken.
