

bouquet* revitalises Gstaad's nightlife scene
Le Grand Bellevue's trendsetting new club to launch on 25 December 2015

LONDON, 8 December 2015: This month, the newest hotel in the Swiss ski resort of Gstaad, Le Grand Bellevue, will unveil its very own club, bouquet. Set to introduce a whole new facet to Gstaad's nightlife offering, bouquet is already making waves with its line-up of exciting guest DJs and events.

Launching on Christmas Day, bouquet will boast a dark and decadent style, with kilim-covered sofas and velvet banquette seating. House of Hackney 'Midnight Garden' wallpaper will complement deep burgundy velvet and herringbone curtains to create a cool, luxe-meets-rock'n'roll vibe. Open until the early hours, bouquet will bring a taste of something new to a town known for its restrained atmosphere, combining a sophisticated and elegant air with a fun, dynamic vibe.

All music tastes will be catered for, with sultry lounge music in the evenings turning into alternative dance tunes later on. Resident DJ GMAC from Paris will be a regular fixture, joined by an exciting programme of international guest DJs throughout the season.

The playful cocktail list will feature inventive and exciting flavours. Signature sake cocktails will star alongside Krug and Moët & Chandon's new Nectar Imperial Rose champagne served on ice, with Gstaad the first ski resort to get its hands on the coveted tippel. If guests get peckish, bouquet will be on hand to serve up a variety of appetite-sating midnight snacks.

Following the Christmas Day launch party, bouquet will ring in the New Year with a lavish celebration, featuring an extensive menu of canapés and cocktails, making it a night to remember.

Revellers looking to rest their heads can settle down in one of Le Grand Bellevue's 57 sumptuous rooms and suites, whilst the 3,000 sqm Le Grand Spa offers the perfect place to wind down. Skiers can explore Gstaad's 220km of powdery pistes, before enjoying Michelin starred cuisine in the hotel's bistro-style restaurant, LEONARD's, or tucking into hearty fondue in the cosy surrounds of Le Petit Chalet.

Editor's Note: Le Grand Bellevue re-opened after a year-long renovation in December 2013 by dynamic young owners, Daniel and Davia Koetser. In the heart of Gstaad village, the hotel was originally built in 1912 as a Cure House and Spa and continues to hold the title of the oldest palace hotel in Gstaad. Family-owned, managed and designed, the hotel comprises 57 bedrooms. Downstairs, bold colors, eye-catching prints and elegant furniture make up the interior with the hotel's Art-Deco bar housing a 17-metre custom-made Chesterfield. The hotel's signature restaurant LEONARD's offers exceptional Michelin-starred cuisine whilst the more intimate, 18-seat Le Petit Chalet serves up a menu of hearty Swiss dishes. Other features include: a Cigar Lounge, Club Room, Private Cinema, Yacht Club and 3,000 sqm spa in partnership with organic English brand Bamford and revolutionary Swiss facial brand Cellcosmet.
