

Job Title: Backyard Adventure Guide (Summer)
Job Site: Edwards, CO (White River National Forest)
Reports to: Eagle County Program Director

Organizational Overview:

SOS Outreach, founded and headquartered in Colorado’s Vail Valley, is a national youth development nonprofit that transforms the lives of underserved youth by delivering long-term life skills development through progressive outdoor adventure-based programs. With a unique combination of outdoor adventure experiences, positive adult mentorship and leadership development opportunities, SOS Outreach enables youth to unleash their potential to thrive. Last year alone, SOS served 4,829 youth across 22,618 program days, making SOS a program leader across the country. Every SOS program incorporates the SOS core values of courage, discipline, integrity, wisdom, compassion and humility. Throughout the curriculum, SOS students complete outdoor experiential learning, character development, service learning, values-based leadership training, and citizenship enrichment. The programs of SOS are based out of over 29 ski resorts across the Mountain West, and include both winter and summer outdoor experiential education. Activities include skiing, snowboarding, snowshoeing, camping, hiking, rock climbing, teambuilding, low ropes course, backpacking, sailing and mountain biking.

Position Summary:

SOS Outreach is currently seeking qualified individuals interested in introducing youth to outdoor leadership skills and outdoor recreation in wilderness settings. Backyard Adventure Guides must be passionate about working with youth of varied ages and from diverse backgrounds. As a model for positive growth, instructors will provide the support, safety, and guidance needed for youth to foster an appreciation for nature, learn the skills necessary to participate in outdoor experiences, and become part of a group learning atmosphere.

Responsibilities (include but not limited to):

- Lead Backyard Adventure groups of 13 youth (8 – 14 years old) in a front country setting with a co-guide, including preparation, implementation, cleanup and debriefing. The Backyard Adventure program is a Monday through Thursday day program, introducing a new adventure sport each day.
- Manage the safety of all participants while delivering programming focused on introductions to a variety of activities including hiking, rock climbing, stand-up paddle boarding, teambuilding, and other outdoor adventure sports.
- Deliver SOS’ values-based curriculum designed to provide youth with life-changing experiences. Curriculum focuses on six core values: Courage, Discipline, Integrity, Wisdom, Compassion, and Humility.

Qualifications:

- Be 21 years of age or older.
- Current Wilderness First Aid (Wilderness First Responder, preferred) and CPR certification.
- BYA day hiking involves 2-4 miles and 2,000’ elevation gains. Must be able to carry 30lbs. guide pack.

- Pass Federal background check and Motor Vehicle check.
 - Knowledge of Leave No Trace Practices.
 - Have experience working with youth and youth development programs.
 - Rock climbing, hiking, wilderness travel, and team building experience (Preferably in the Rocky Mountain Region).
 - Leadership experience in group facilitation in backcountry settings.
 - Have a positive attitude and good sense of humor and strong communication skills.
- Experience, comfort, and passion in working with disadvantaged youth and low income families.
 - Spanish language proficiency and cultural literacy (preferred).
 - Awareness of factors impacting the lives of underserved youth.
 - Willingness to learn about privilege, racism, and oppression and how these social constructions impact students and staff.
 - A desire to make a positive difference in the community.
