5 MARCH 2017

1ST SUNDAY OF LENT READINGS THIS WEEK:

1st: Gen.2.7-9,16-18, 25:3.1-7 Sin of our first parents
2nd: Rom.5.12-19 Saved through Christ
Gospel: Matt 4.1-11 Temptation
Readings for next week: ; Gen.12.1-4 2.Timothy.1.8b-10
Gospel: Matt 17.1-9

First Sunday of Lent

(Matthew 4: 1-11)

The temptations to become a person of dominance, prominence, influence and abundance is real. And it defies one's social status, level of education, religious belief, political inclination, ideology, gender, nationality and cultural background. No one is exempted from worldly temptations.

Even Jesus Himself is not exempted from these temptations. He is enticed by the devil to have abundance in life (turning stone to bread). He is told to enjoy the luxuries of life and to be served rather than to serve (to be caught by the angels) and He is offered power (owning the whole city) if only He would kneel and worship Satan, the prince of darkness. As told in the gospel, Jesus refuses all these temptations and sticks on a single focus: "to love and serve the Lord, your God alone."

In our search for happiness and meaning we often look at worldly sources. We come to think that the measure of happiness depends on how much wealth we possess, how many people work for us, and the strength of our dominance in the world. In this Lenten season we are reminded that happiness born out of material excesses is not lasting and far from truly satisfying. For indeed true happiness is not in owning but in detaching, not in being served but in giving a part of ourselves so that others may enjoy better lives, and not in dominance but in humble obedience to the will of God. As Christ teaches us in the gospel for today, the focus is on the Lord alone. Apart from Him there is no true happiness and meaning in life.

Fr Dondon

Next Week's Reading SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT

Genesis 12: 1-4a II; Timothy 1:8b-10; Matthew 17:1-9

In next week's 2nd reading we'll find one of Christianity's most fundamental truths: '(God) .....called us with a holy calling.' The first reading from the Book of Genesis describes the first call recorded in Scripture. 'Go forth from your country and your kindred and your father's house to the land that I will show you,' God says to Abraham. Presumably, before he encountered God, Abraham's security lay in his family, his flocks, his pastures and the land in which he lived. Once he says 'yes' to God's call he not only leaves all that behind but he has to find his security in God because God has not told him where to go other than 'to the land that I will show you'. And thus began a relationship with God that is part of our Christian inheritance. Gospel discipleship is about committing to a relationship with God which means being constantly "on the move" because no relationship is ever static.

In the gospel for next week we find Peter wanting to put down roots on the mountain top away from real life – 'Lord, it is good for us to be here.....I will make three tents....' And the voice of God reminding them they had a call to follow in the person of Jesus - .....this is my Son,.....listen to him!.....do not be afraid.'

For all too long, our Catholic tradition has led us to think of priests and religious as the only ones called by God so perhaps something to reflect on this Lent is that every baptised person is no less called. If we don't all recognise that and respond without being afraid, the kingdom of God, the kingdom of love and mercy and peace, will never become the reality God means it to be.

A huge thank you to the ICPE Mission Group that visited last week, they were extremely inspirational to our students. Also, a big thanks to the staff and students for making our guests welcome - once again you have shown the Special Character of the school and made it shine.

This week is an extremely busy week with quite a bit on now that we are in the middle of the term. Our first Marist Young Neighbour students will be embarking on another adventure with Fr Mark Walls. The students will be gone from yesterday to next Sunday. Monday sees our Senior Cricket team taking on Whanganui High School. Tuesday is Justice Leadership Day and is also the day that our Athletics team will be travelling to the annual Viard Shield event. This is the annual event that pits our best athletes against the other Catholic schools in the Palmerston North Diocese. On Wednesday PhotoLife will be onsite to take our Student Portraits. Check out our FaceBook page for more information. On Thursday the Year 11 History class is off campus for a field trip and our Year 9s will be taking part in the annual Hearing and Vision testing. Our Rowing squad also leaves for Lake Karapiro on Thursday for the North Island Secondary School Championships. These go until Sunday and will see our crews up against approximately 2000 other students from around the North Island. On Friday, we have our weekly Mass as usual in St Joseph's Chapel at 10:45am. This week's celebration is being hosted by students from 12U. As always we invite our wider community to come and break bread with our students. Finally, on Saturday and Sunday three of our students will be taking part in the Central North Island Regional Debating Championships at Whanganui High School - best of luck to them and to those students who will be taking part in the Whanganui Secondary Schools Triathlon on Saturday.

On Friday we had the ICPE mission team visit our school. We are blessed to have such an enthusiastic and committed team come to our parish. We also had a special Ash Wednesday Liturgy on Wednesday at St Anne's Church. As part of Lent we have a prayer wall in our Junior rooms foyer. There is a desk and paper to write prayers to add to the wall and we will use these prayers in classes and liturgies. Please feel free to come over to school and add to the prayer wall. Next Friday evening we also have a fun movie night at school. This is an opportunity for all families to come together at no cost. The children are currently voting on the movie for the evening.

E te iwi whakapono, tena koutou.

On Tuesday, we gathered as a school in Fr Levin's Library and had an interactive learning session about Shrove Tuesday. We watched a video clip, Mr Grant asked children to think about what they will do for others in this season of Lent, and Mr Park and Mrs Mc Inroy baked our pancakes.

That afternoon Pa Hancy joined us in liturgy to burn our Lenten promises and last years palm leaves.

On Wednesday, we joined with other parishioners to receive our ashes, reflecting on how to make good choices and turn back to God.

On Thursday, we welcomed our visitors from ICPE to St Marcellin School. They spoke to the children about the gifts they contribute to their kaupapa, and share with willingly with others.

Take care of yourselves and one another.

God bless,

Maia Williams.
