16 APRIL 2017 EASTER SUNDAY

This weeks readings Acts 10:34a, 37-43; I Corinthians 5:6b-8; John 20:1-9

"Do not be afraid; I know that you are looking for Jesus who was crucified. He is not here; for he has been raised, as he said. Come see the place where he lay." (Mtt 28: 5-6) Fear turns to amazement and despair to joy! On this happiest of days we are heirs to both the promise and the mission given to the disciples of Jesus. Just as Jesus died for them he dies for us; as he rose for them he is risen for us. The only reason the disciples, who were all practising, monotheistic Jews, could proclaim Jesus to be the Son of God was because he did what only God could do.

John starts his gospel speaking of the beginning: "In the beginning was the Word ..." (Jn 1: 1). That was when the spirit hovered over the waters (Gen 1: 2). Throughout his ministry Jesus worked seven signs to reveal the work of God who created the world in seven days. Jesus brings this creation to completion from the Cross: "When Jesus had received the wine, he said, 'It is finished.' Then he bowed his head and gave up his spirit" (Jn 19: 30) In the Resurrection, therefore, he shows forth an eighth sign and a new creation. It is the eighth day - the Lord's Day. Again, the Spirit is poured out, this time upon the disciples who are commissioned to take this new reality, unconstrained by sin and death, to a world in desperate need of the Good News. "Jesus said to them again, 'Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.' When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, 'Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any they are retained'." (Jn 20: 21-23)

For the Jews it was only God could forgive sins: "Who can forgive sins but God alone?" (Mark 2: 7) Now, with the gift of the Spirit, the disciples can do what previously only God could do. In other words, we share already in the resurrection! The Church continues the mission of the risen Christ and we are the heirs to his risen power. Let us use this as we journey throughout Eastertide to bring God's forgiveness to those we meet: "So we are ambassadors for Christ, since God is making his appeal through us; we entreat you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God." (2 Cor 5:20)

Next Week's Reading SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER
 Acts 2:42-47 | Peter 1:3-9 John 20:19-31

All too often, we think of the Gospels as a historical record of Jesus' life, whereas the Gospel writers are trying to spell out the implications of commitment to the risen Christ. It's the risen Jesus, the Christ, next week's second reading is talking about when it says, "Even though you do not see him now, you believe in him.....you are receiving the outcome of your faith". The risen Jesus, the Christ, could only be experienced by those who believed. John emphasises this teaching in the Gospel reading when he has Jesus asking after the resurrection, "Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed." Thomas had been quite definite that he would not believe "Unless I see the marks of the nail in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side..." He needed to be certain that Jesus had died before he could be certain that he had risen. Next week's readings make a strong connection between the total self-giving that led to Jesus' death and the sharing of self through which disciples experience the reality of the risen Christ in their lives. "All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all as any had need." says the reading from Acts. Sharing ourselves and our gifts is not without pain, as we well know, but the risen Christ becomes evident only when we give of ourselves, in whatever way we can. It's no accident that John connects Jesus' Easter Sunday appearance with his command to forgive others. One of the most important Easter messages is that, if we're not open to forgiving and being forgiven, we're closing our hearts and minds to the presence of the Risen Christ within us.

Please Support the Good Friday and Easter Sunday Collections

Rightly, we are moved by the stories and images we see on TV and YouTube of teachers, and nurses and doctors who, notwithstanding great danger, set out daily to work in Aleppo and Mosul and other war zones. Similarly when the Ebola Virus was rampant in Liberia and Sierra Leone, I often thought the local medics, wrapped from head to foot in protective gowns, were surely the unsung heroes going about their daily duty away from the safe media zones.

For some people in our world, going to Mass is also dangerous. For a complexity of reasons, Churches and our schools and clinics can become targets of violence in parts of Iraq, Iran, Syrian, Egypt, India, Pakistan, Yemen as well as the Holy land itself.

The ancient but fragile Christian communities in the Middle East and the Holy Land (where Brother Ben Shore OFM Cap, from our Diocese, is currently serving as part of his formation with the Capuchin Friars) face oppression and harassment yet they remain courageous in their charity and their appreciation of Mass.

It is to them that our annual Good Friday collection is destined. You can support this appeal by placing a donation in an envelope marked Good Friday Collection on the Friday itself or in the usual Sunday collection basket.

Our prayers for peace in the region are also much appreciated.

Easter Sunday Collection

This collection is a "thank you" for our priests. It is divided equally among them and used for holiday costs, books and periodicals, and the priests' own charitable donations. We are blessed with the service of our priests whose workload is far from light. This is one way to show your appreciation. Thanks everyone. Kia ora tātou.

Christ
is Risen!

It has been an eventful two weeks. Unfortunately on the weekend of the school mass our staffroom was flooded by some children who wedged open a window and turned taps on. We mopped up 9 buckets of water on the vinyl. Later that week we were also sandbagging and moving furniture as part of the State of Civil Emergency. Thanks to this parents, staff and members of our community who were able to assist in the flood preparations. We really valued your help. Thank you to the parents who supported our special character by being present with your children at our mass. Special thanks for the kind donations to the Whanganui Foodbank, they were very appreciative of these items. This week we farewell Maggie Nicolini while she is on maternity leave as she spends time with the new addition to her family. Danielle Willan will take on the role as teacher in room 7 until Maggie returns from leave. Elizabeth Schaw will take on the role as Acting principal until I return in term 3.
