7 MAY 2017 4TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

This weeks readings Acts 2.14a 36b-41 1 Pet. 2.20b-25,
Fourth Sunday of Easter
(John 10: 1-10)

Every fourth Sunday of Easter, we are invited to reflect upon the image and reality that God is the Good Shepherd who lays down His life for His sheep. Here in NZ we have more sheep compared to other countries in the world, yet we have few shepherds or indeed a history of them. There are some farmers who tend to more than hundreds sheep. The traditional role of the shepherd, who knew each of his sheep individually, has given way to sheep dogs, motorbikes and helicopter as flocks are rounded up, yarded and then shorn or sent off to market.

In the time of Jesus, flocks were small in size and the shepherd knew each of his sheep. Believe it or not, the sheep could recognise the voice of their shepherd from the other shepherds in the area. Many claim to be shepherds in today's world. Many voices offer to guide us along life's paths. The question is, "Which of these voices should we listen to?" This is a very good question and the answer is not always easy to find as many of the voices can be very persuasive but should still be ignored.

We need to learn how to recognise the voice of God through the proper functioning of our own spirits so that we can hear what we need to hear when it comes to following Jesus. It is critical that we become men and women of the Spirit and the Word of God so that we can fully discern the good voice from the bad one. We can save ourselves a lot of grief if we learn this lesson well.

One of the most inspiring ways to learn how to listen to the voice of God is by reading the lives of the saints. Through their lives, we can see the many wonderful examples of what it means to listen to God's voice. Let us always remember to pray for the grace of the Spirit of God to help us in our discernment on which voice to listen to.

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Acts 6:1-7 | Peter 2:4-9 John 14:1-12

There's a post-Vatican II poster that says 'God doesn't make junk!'

Next week, all three readings reinforce that message.

The author of 1Peter writes, "You are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's own people, in order that you may proclaim the mighty acts of him who called you out of darkness into his marvellous light."

surely an unmistakable message that, as followers of Jesus, you and I are not junk! The Jesus of John's Gospel takes it even further when he assures his followers at the Last Supper, "Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do, and, in fact, will do greater works than these....." Isn't that telling us that the risen Jesus trusts us not just to carry on from where he left off, but to go beyond what he was able to do between 6 BCE and 30 CE, and doesn't it testify to our importance?

Next week's reading from Acts gives a practical example of that importance being used by the early Christians to solve a problem between their Greek-speaking and Aramaic-speaking widows. The apostles' unique solution was to have the Greek members of the community take responsibility for nominating some of their number to care for the needs of their widows who suspected they were being short-changed in 'the daily distribution of food'. While the institutional Church came to see this as proof for the diaconate, Luke was more concerned with showing the importance of being other Christs. Unfortunately, as the Christian community gradually developed institutional structures, it began to forget the dignity and importance of individual Christians until, ultimately, the community was divided into clergy and laity with one group becoming superior and the other subservient. There's still a long way to go before we return to the early Christian concept expressed in our readings but every time we gather, consult, reflect, plan together and share responsibility, we are moving in the right direction.

It's great to be back at school. Our first week of the winter term has been a good one with the students looking really sharp in their winter uniforms. It's been great to see the turnout for this year's Survive A Slum which took place this past Friday and yesterday. From the sounds of it the sponsorship from the community for this important fundraiser has been fantastic.

This coming week is a lot busier for some of our students as a few of our Juniors and Seniors are taking part in six Roadshows promoting our College to our feeder Primaries and Intermediates. On Tuesday we have one of our Junior Debating teams hosting Palmerston North Girls' High School and on Wednesday another of our teams will be travelling to Whanganui High School. We wish both teams good luck and will report the results next week.

On Friday the College will be holding its Cross Country competition which will help select the team that will represent the school at local and regional events. Friday also sees our O'Shea Shield team travel to St Bernard's College in Lower Hutt. We wish them a safe journey and all the best against the other sixteen Colleges of the Palmerston North and Wellington Diocese.

Finally, we have our first class Mass on Friday as well. We will begin at the usual time of 10:45am in St Joseph's Chapel. This week's Mass will be hosted by students from 10CD, everyone in our wider community is welcome to come along and support our students in their Faith journey.

We have had a lovely start to the term with a number of new students. We will have a Powhiri for them on Wednesday 17th May.

Our students had an enjoyable night on Friday at the school disco; A huge thanks to our PTA for running this for our students.

Our PTA are currently running a meat raffle to help raise funds for our school.

We have 10 students from our school being welcomed into the Catholic Church.

We are beginning their Baptism Sacrament in our school assembly next week, then completing it at 6pm Mass on Sunday 14th May.

If you wish to have the Parish Bulletin emailed to you on a weekly basis please contact the Parish Office. You can do this in person or simply email the office to indicate your desire to receive the email in this way. We promise not to spam you!

However, when there are events in the parish, of particular note, we might notify you by email to ensure that you do not miss out.

Reconciliation Changes

The set times for the availability of the sacrament of reconciliation at St Mary's have changed. The Thursday time is cancelled with Friday time of 11am-11.40am. All other times at Holy Family and St Anne's remain the same.

Parishioners are reminded that they can request the sacrament at any time as long as it is convenient to the priest. If you want to address serious or complex issues it is usually best to make a separate arrangement so that issues can be dealt with in depth.

I encourage all parishioners to have confidence in the mercy of God and the discernment of their pastors.

Palmerston North Interfaith Group Pasifika Climate Change Forum.

Saturday, 20 May 2017, 10:00am- 2:30pm at Te Manawa Museum, 326 Main Street, Palmerston North. Film premier of "Making Waves: Stories of Courage and Hope", starring 6 Pasifika students from Massey University sharing personal stories about the effects of climate change on their lives and loved ones. The film premier is part of a forum which takes up the film's call to action, asking "What do Pasifika people need from us as they struggle to live with climate-induced devastation?" Keynote speaker, Teanau Tuiono will address the connection between the home islands and the diaspora communities in New Zealand. Lunch provided- Koha welcome. You must reserve your seat for this free event at Eventfinda by 15 May, as spaces are limited to 100 people. <https://www.eventfinda.co.nz/2017/making-waves-stories-of-courage-and-hope/palmerston-north>, or email bob-skipper@xtra.co.nz
