

Christmas Eve

Morning Breakfast, Outreach and Worship Service

Come on in out of the cold. Pull up a seat at the table. There's room for you here. Whether you spent last night on the street or tucked into a warm bed, there's a place for you. Jesus wants to sit by you; to be with you... It's why we call him Emmanuel, God With Us.

Whether you have a little or a lot; whether you're wearing your 'Sunday Best' or carrying a bag with all your worldly belongings, the ground is level at the foot of the manger. We are all one and the same under the tender gaze of the Father. You are a Child of God; a member of His own family.

And there's always room for family at the table. Join us Christmas Eve Morning for a celebration of belonging and a big, old-fashioned family breakfast. Even if you don't feel like you have all that much to celebrate, we hope you'll come on in out of the cold and pull up a seat at the table.

Breakfast: 9:00 a.m. in the Commons
Worship Service: 10:00 a.m. in the Chapel

Guest Speaker: John-Mark Echols, President and co-founder of The Field's Edge

After breakfast, we will be providing Citypak backpacks to anyone who may need one. We'll also provide a selection of items for individuals to choose to put in their backpacks, including food and toiletries, laundromat certificates, restaurant gift cards, and other items we hope make the season a bit brighter and lighter.

How can you help? Join us for breakfast. Seek out someone you don't know and sit beside them. Find out their name and share stories. Embrace the awkward and be willing to engage in clumsy conversations. Invite a new friend into worship and ask if they want to sit with you. Be light.
