CONDITIONS of SALE – GENERAL

The company will intimate, either by advertisement or otherwise the closing date for each sale.

The company reserve the right to offer for sale last, any animal entered by a dealer without regard to the balloted sale order.

Each vendor must provide him/herself with a catalogue and satisfy him/herself that his/her animal (s) are correctly described, except as to the height stated. If his/her animal is incorrectly described in the catalogue the Vendor shall give notice thereof to the company before or at the time of sale, otherwise such description shall, as between the company and the vendor be deemed to be correct.

A vendor is not allowed to bid either directly or indirectly for his/her own animal, but the vendor has the right to fix a reserve price and to withdraw his/her animal, should the highest bid not equal or exceed that price.

The highest bidder, whose bid the company is prepared to accept, shall be the purchaser, provided that his bid equals or exceeds the reserve price fixed by the vendor.

If any dispute arises between bidders as to who was the highest bidder for any animal, the animal shall immediately be put up again and re-sold.

- i. Each animal shall be at risk of the Vendor until the Purchaser has taken delivery
- ii. and thereafter shall be at the risk of the Purchaser

The vendor shall provide a competent attendant who shall remain in charge of the animal until the purchaser has taken delivery.

If the vendor fails to comply with the last proceeding paragraph of the condition, the company may make an extra charge of £5.00 per animal against the vendor, provided always that failing any agreement with the vendor to the contrary the purchaser shall be bound to take delivery of the animal within half an hour after the conclusion of the day's sale, and after that period shall have elapsed the vendor shall, on making a report to the company's office, be relieved of the responsibility for the care of the animal. The company undertakes no responsibility whatsoever for the care of animals whilst upon the company's premises and shall not under any circumstances be liable either to the vendor or the purchaser with regard thereto, or for any injury or damage which an animal may sustain while upon the company's premises.

Animals to be halter led where possible. No animal to be 'driven' on auction company premises unless accompanied by auction mart employees.

No animal shall be taken away from the company's premises without the written consent of the company.

Horses offered for sale must be accompanied by a valid passport.

WARRANTIES

No warranty is given as to height.

An animal sold for life or at a price not exceeding 500 guineas is not warranted in any way, and is not returnable.

Subject to the following hereof, the vendor warrants his/her animal to be:-
According to the description given in the catalogue.

All horses offered for sale by the Auctioneers must be sound in wind, eyes, heart, and action (also free from any substances capable of affecting his performance or soundness), unless expressly stated otherwise.

Horses described as 'Hunters' must also be quiet to ride in traffic and capable of being hunted, horses described as being 'Hacks' must also be quiet to ride in traffic, horses described as quiet to ride/and or quiet to drive must also be quiet in traffic; and riding ponies of 14.2 hands or under must be quiet to ride in traffic and manageable by a child of average competence and age appropriate to the size of the pony. Draught horses described as 'quiet and good workers' shall be interpreted as follows:- The horse being harnessed to a suitable vehicle or implement must draw the same away in an ordinary manner, that is to say without rearing, jibbing, kicking or bolting.

If the animal is a mare, filly or gelding unless otherwise stated in the catalogue or declared by the auctioneers at time of sale: and if a male when foaled and other than a foal when offered for sale, properly castrated unless otherwise stated in the catalogue or declared by the auctioneers at the time of sale. Subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, an animal which fails to comply with the warranties set out shall be returnable and shall be taken back to the vendor.
