WHANGANUI PARISH BULLETIN 26 AUGUST 2018 21ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Readings for this week: Jos 24:1-2a, 15-17, 18b; Eph 4.32-5:21-32; Jn 6.53, 60-69

In my homily last Sunday I quoted St Irenaeus writing, "Just as bread from the earth, when it receives the invocation of God, is no longer common bread but the Eucharist, made up of two elements, one earthly and one heavenly, so also our bodies, in receiving the Eucharist, are no longer corruptible, for they have the hope of resurrection." [S Irenaeus] St John Paul II wrote, "The Church draws her life from the Eucharist", and explained that those who receive the Eucharist become "the Body of Christ—not many bodies but one body." [Ecclesia de Eucharistia] There should be in each one of us a real change! We have in us the "hope of resurrection", and our lives mirror this in every thought and action. St James reminds us, "Show me your faith without works, and I by my works will show you my faith." [James 2; 18]

I want to suggest that we should think about the requirement of the Constitution on the Liturgy when it tells us that "Mother Church earnestly desires that all the faithful should be led to that fully conscious and active participation in liturgical celebrations which is demanded by the very nature of the liturgy." [Sacrosanctum Concilium, 14] We have learned well the lesson that we must listen actively and attentively to the scriptures. However, "The gestures and bodily posture of ... the faithful must be conducive to making the celebration resplendent with beauty and noble simplicity ... and fostering the participation of all." [General Introduction to the Roman Missal (GIRM), 42] So our standing together and sitting together are also signs of our union with each other; when the priest makes his genuflection after the Consecration all should make a profound bow, for Christ is truly present. We should do the same as we approach the priest or extraordinary minister to receive Holy Communion.

Think of the effect on onlookers, they might think, or even say, "These people really believe the Lord is here. See their respect and reverence". And so they may come to faith. Silence and silent prayer before Mass are also signs of respect and reverence for Christ who is present. [GIRM, 45] Many Churches have built narthexes – foyers, gathering spaces, etc – so that people are able to greet each other on the way into the Church. I will never forget my startlement when I read about one non-Catholic who plucked up courage to attend Mass; he was stunned by the reverent and prayerful silence before Mass. He is now a faithful and valuable servant of God in the Church. Father John.

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY OF THE YEAR

Next weeks readings: Deut 4:1-2, 6-8; Jas 1:17-18, 21b-22, 27; Mk 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23

After listening to and reflecting on the 'bread of life' readings from John for five consecutive Sundays, next week we return to the gospel of Mark for the rest of the liturgical year.

An element of Judaism that was central to Jewish life at the time of Jesus was the Purity Code. This code with its 613 rules affected every aspect of Jewish life and even the slightest transgression was considered an act of unfaithfulness to God and the Israelite traditions.

Unfortunately, by degrees the "commandments of the Lord your God" in the Hebrew scriptures and the 'traditions' taught by the rabbis came to be given the same value and the distinction between the two was lost so that an obsessive observance of rituals and rules in the belief that these were the essence of faith, took the place of love of God and neighbour.

It was this obsession that led the Pharisees to confront Jesus in the gospel reading and question him about allowing his disciples to eat without first carrying out the ritual washing of hands. In response, Jesus made it clear that external observance of rules and regulations was not what God was looking for – "..... This people honours me with their lips but their hearts are far from me... ..teaching human precepts as doctrines. You abandon the commandments of God and hold to human tradition."

He went on to make it clear to the Pharisees and his other listeners that it was what was in the heart, particularly attitudes that could lead to actions causing harm to other people, that 'defile a person'.

"What counts above all else," Pope Francis says, referring to our own times "is faith working through love. Works of love directed to one's neighbour are the most perfect manifestation of the interior grace of the Spirit."

Māori Education Special Collection

This annual collection has growing support. Thank you. An investment in something that works well rightfully brings a sense of inner satisfaction to our hearts. Successful educational outcomes for young Māori are good for all New Zealanders.

All of our Catholic schools serve Māori students well. In our Diocese we are also blessed to host the nation's two Catholic Māori Boarding Schools: Hāto Pāora College and St Joseph's Māori Girls' College. They achieve outstanding results with the students they nurture, teach and form.

There is a desire which resonates deep within all New Zealanders to foster educational achievement among all families of our nation. All of us – as a community of believers, as iwi whakapono – can contribute to this vision and make it real. For this reason the annual special collection for education of our young Māori is something that I hope will appeal to everyone.

Your donation, no matter the amount, is an investment for a vibrant, working, diverse, faith-filled NZ. May I also take the opportunity to thank those who support families of other ethnic groups including of course Pākehā struggling to pay school attendance dues.

Thank you.

+ Chelle

Senior exams started this week, for Years 11-13 students.

Students experienced what it is like in exam type conditions as they worked on various subject assessments and we congratulate them on how they approached their studies this week.

We also farewelled Alicia Prince, who is our Sports Co-Coordinator at the College, as she leaves for maternity leave.

Week Six of Term Three (August 27th – 31st) is a quiet week in our College calendar, which is lovely given the busy start we have had to the Term.

As usual, we will have our weekly Mass on Friday 31st August at 10am held in the College Chapel and we warmly welcome any parishioners who would like to join us.

This Mass will be hosted by our students from 11DD.

Our juniors had an amazing day at the Wellington Zoo on Tuesday. They had an early start with the buses pulling out at 8am. The school was very quiet with the JLC to Room 6 gone, as well as some of our Year 5 & 6 students who were competing at the Contributing Schools' soccer tournament. On Thursday our year 7&8 students competed at the Super 6 racquet sports. These students represented our school well.

Our PTA has a quiz night coming up at Stella on Friday 31st August at 7pm. If you would like to come along it would be great. $10 per person - teams of 2-8 people. Contact the school office for a ticket. Last week Ms Couper gave birth to a little girl. They are both doing well. Please keep them in your prayers. This Monday we have the Duffy Books Theatre coming to perform. This Wednesday Room 6 is running assembly. This starts in the hall at 2pm and you are all welcome.

Also a reminder that our Gala day is on Saturday 27th October - keep this day free to join us for a fantastic day.

A website recently came to my attention that spoke of the reasons why Americans go to religious services and the reasons why they do not: <https://fox13now.com/2018/08/09/10-reasons-americans-go-to-church-and-9-reasons-they-dont/>

Here are the top 10 reasons given by Americans who attend religious services at least once a month, according to Pew. Survey respondents were allowed to give more than one reason. The percentage refers to people who said this was a "very important" reason for their decision:

- To become closer to God. (81%)
- So their children will have a moral foundation. (69%)
- To become a better person. (68%)
- For comfort in times of trouble or sorrow. (66%)
- They find the sermons valuable. (59%)
- To be part of a faith community. (57%)
- To continue their family's religious traditions. (37%)
- They feel obligated to go. (31%)
- To meet new people or socialize. (19%)
- To please their family, spouse or partner. (16%)

According to Pew, that was the top reason survey respondents gave for skipping regular religious services. Here's the whole list:

- They practice their faith in "other ways." (37%)
- They are not believers. (28%)
- No reason is "very important." (26%)
- They haven't found a house of worship they like. (23%)
- They don't like the sermons. (18%)
- They don't feel welcome. (14%)
- They don't have the time. (12%)
- Poor health or mobility. (9%)
- No house of worship in their area. (7%)

For those of us who love to practise our faith and attend the sacraments this is an interesting survey. Perhaps we can take a part in addressing the needs of others in our community on those issues over which we collectively or individually have some control. My attention is drawn to the 14% of the respondents who do not feel welcome.

As for the sermons I preach homilies so it must refer to others!
Fr Marcus
